Apprenticeships

About Us

West Lothian College offers support through the Modern Apprentice programme to help employers to develop their workforce by training new staff, and upskilling existing employees. Modern Apprenticeships enable your employee an opportunity to earn a wage whilst gaining an industry-recognised qualification.

Your business may also be able to access the Flexible Workforce Development Fund supporting training to upskill and reskill existing staff.

Foundation Apprenticeships bridge the gap between the classroom and the workplace, giving young people earlier exposure to the world of work, allowing business to grow their future workforce.

They can also offer bespoke training to upskill or reskill your workforce such as

Scottish Vocational Qualifications (SVQs) to support your employee's training and development.

ADVICE SHOP

1-2-1 Advice

Benefit Advice

About Us

The Advice Shop delivers a free, impartial and confidential advice service to help households in West Lothian including the following areas:

- Welfare Benefits
- Money, budgeting & Debt Advice
- Housing Advice – Advice on preventing homelessness, disrepair issues, rent arrears/evictions
- Energy Advice looking at energy efficiency and ways to reduce bills or access further support if required

Trained advisors will complete a benefit check and look at options to maximise income, reduce expenditure and access other appropriate financial support. Better off benefit calculations can also be completed for those looking to start or change employment.

The Scottish Welfare Fund helps people on a low income with the following:

- Crisis Grants - if you're in crisis because of a disaster (like a fire or flood), or an emergency (like losing your money or job, or an unexpected expense)
- Self-Isolation Support Grant - if you've been asked to self-isolate by Test and Protect because of coronavirus (COVID-19) and will lose income as a result
- Community Care Grant – to help you or someone you care for to start to live or to carry on living a settled life in the community

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT SCOTLAND

Recruitment

Apprenticeships

Training / Upskilling

About Us

Skills Development Scotland support individuals to build their career management, work-based and employability skills, throughout their career journey, from school, to further learning opportunities and employment.

SDS administers Scottish Apprenticeships on behalf of the Scottish Government, which incorporates Foundation Apprenticeships (FAs), Modern Apprenticeships (MAs) and Graduate Apprenticeships (GAs).

Apprenticeships help individuals from every walk of life the opportunity to build the experience and skills that employers want to see.

SDS also work with employers on an individual basis, supporting them to:

- Understand, engage with and create work-based learning (WBL) opportunities
- Understand the skills they require to achieve their ambitions
- Consider how they can meet those needs through work-based learning (WBL), and other workforce development, as well as recruitment
- Build and maintain fair, equal and inclusive workplaces that attract and retain talent from across all of Scotland's communities.
